LEADING FROM THE HEART
WITH SPECIAL GUEST JAMES CAPRA

James L. Capra is a recognized expert on leadership and organizational management and is an accomplished presenter and author. With his unique experience serving in one of the more dangerous professions in law enforcement, Jimmy shares the challenges and leadership lessons while rising up through the ranks in the DEA. He offers real world examples and uplifting stories of what it takes to lead in any environment, sharing his walk leading at the front line while pursuing excellence with purpose and passion. The key to great leadership is the ability to develop relationships! Do you desire to transform your organization, to improve employee relationships and/or to change course in your leadership walk? Consider accomplishing your organization's leadership goals by Leading from the Heart.

ACCURATE TRAFFIC STOPS AND DATA COLLECTION
WITH SPECIAL GUEST DR. RICHARD JOHNSON

Dr. Richard Johnson is a trainer and researcher with Dolan Consulting Group. He has decades of experience teaching and training on various topics associated with criminal justice, and has conducted research on a variety of topics related to crime and law enforcement. In response to CALEA accreditation requirements and/or public allegations of racial profiling, many law enforcement agencies have begun to track the race, ethnicity, and gender of those who are stopped, searched, arrested, and/or received force from their officers. If not researched and written properly, these reports have the potential to be misinterpreted. Dr. Johnson's presentation offers crucial tips on how to present the information in your report in a manner that creates the least chance of misinterpretation or manipulation and presents the fair work of your agency in the most professional manner possible.
